Opening Night to Feature Best Food Films of Past 10 Years

Edible Adventure #15 Featuring Tony Chachere's + the Many Flavors of Louisiana

The Food Porn Party Returns with World's 1st Food Porn Star Larry Cauldwell, Extreme Close-Ups and Food Burlesque

Closing Night to Feature Masked Tsukemen Master Chef Nigo

The Food Film Festival is returning to New York City October 20-23 for its 10th consecutive year! This unique festival is the only place where guests get to Taste What They See on the Screen, as attendees watch a menu of food films and are simultaneously served the foods from the films.

In celebration of its 10th annual festival in NYC, this year's opening night, entitled Food Film Fest: Best of a Decade! will feature screenings of some of the most mouth-watering selections ever featured at The Food Film Festival. The events continue with the 15th installment of the Edible Adventure Series, taking on the many tastes of Louisiana and including selections by some of the most prominent chefs of the Pelican State. Saturday's festivities include the annual Food Porn Party, a tongue-in-cheek ode to dialogue-free food films set to great music. The night features extreme close-ups, food burlesque and a special appearance by Larry Caldwell, the World's First Food Porn Star. Finally, the festival closes Sunday evening with a special Tsukemen experience by masked Chef Nigo. Will he finally reveal himself?

ABOUT THE FOOD FILM FESTIVAL

The Food Film Festival is a multisensory food and film experience. Over the course of 10 years, the Festival has hosted over 30,000 guests from New York City to Charleston to Copenhagen. Past events include a screening of The Mud and The Blood followed by an authentic Lowcountry Oyster Roast on a rooftop in Brooklyn with 15,000 South Carolina oysters, and the World Premiere of New York Cooks for Tohoku paired with dishes from Michelin Starred Chefs Boulud, Bouley, Romano, Telepan and Tadashi Ono. In 2012, the I [heart] Japan event featured Ramen Dreams star and Ramen Burger creator, Chef Keizo Shimamoto, who cooked and served his legendary ramen in the U.S. for the 1st time ever. And a special screening of John Markus' The Kings of BBQ Barbecue Kuwait aboard the USS Yorktown Aircraft Carrier in Charleston featuring a BBQ feast smoked on-site by the World Champion Pitmasters featured in the film.

The Food Film Festival is a competitive film festival and Official Selections are reviewed by a judging panel comprised of esteemed members of the food and film communities. Awards are presented in 7 categories including: Best Feature Film, Best Short Film, Best Super-Short Film, Best Food Porn Film, The Audience Choice Award, The Made in New York Award and The Food Filmmaker of the Year Award.

The Food Film Festival hosts its flagship series of events in New York City every October and has curated and produced multiple events around the country. All Festival events benefit important non-profit organizations, such as the Food Bank For New York City, The Billion Oyster Project, The Good Food Project and GrowFood Carolina. The Festival works hard to promote these organizations and the important work they do.

The Food Film Festival would not be possible without the support of In the Raw, Bloomberg, New York Distilling Co., Schweid & Sons, Night Kitchen Brooklyn, Girlie Action Media & Marketing, Food Films America and Over Easy Films.
